What this is

The MBA Top-up is the final stage of your master's. If you have completed a Level 7 diploma such as the OTHM Level 7 Diploma in Strategic Management and Leadership, you can convert it into a full Master of Business Administration awarded by a UK university. You study online around your job, complete a single applied project rather than sitting exams, and you are invited to graduate in person in the UK.

What you'll do

- Research Methods. Build the methodology that underpins your final project and learn to evidence your thinking properly.
- Consultancy Project Report. Solve a real strategic business problem of your choice and back it with theory and analysis. Delivered and assessed by a UK based academic team, with a dedicated supervisor guiding you one to one from start to submission.
